National Able Network, Inc. will provide a new computer training program to increase digital literacy and employment opportunities among seniors with limited computer access.

The Loaner Laptop Program is specifically designed to assist people ages 55 and older in enhancing their technical skills while also increasing employment opportunities. This program provides basic and advanced computer training, Job Readiness Training workshops, peer-to-peer mentoring and a loaner laptop computer to use during training.

National Able Network is now enrolling for the Loaner Laptop Program in Terre Haute. Those interested in participating in the Loaner Laptop Program should contact John O'Connor at 812-514-7689.

Each Able Network client receives personalized career supports that integrate career coaching, specialized training and direct connections to the job market. Programs are designed to assist jobseekers from all backgrounds, including the unemployed, career changers, military veterans, seniors and aspiring IT professionals. Each year, National Able Network provides service to 125,000 individuals in Illinois, Indiana, Maine, Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

For more information email Kristen Cullotta at kcullotta@nationalable.org or call 312-994-4242.
