

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEDIA CONTACT:

Loret De Mar Pelayo

312-994-4337

LDeMarPelayo@nationalable.org

National Able Network Appoints New Chief Program Officer
*Alejandra Sinecio to oversee training and workforce programs in the Midwest

CHICAGO (February 2023) – National Able Network, Inc., one of the nation’s leading workforce development organizations, announced the appointment of Alejandra Sinecio as its Chief Program Officer. In this role, Mrs. Sinecio will provide non-profit leadership in overseeing large-scale workforce development programming across the Midwest.

“We look forward to successfully executing our strategic vision and continued expansion with Mrs. Sinecio’s leadership. Her proven track record of developing community partnerships and programs is commendable,” said Matt Weis, President and Chief Executive Officer of National Able Network, “Mrs. Sinecio has demonstrated a deep commitment to driving positive outcomes for clients and stakeholders, and is eager to bring that dedication into her new role.”

Mrs. Sinecio joined National Able Network in 2020 and has successfully overseen a myriad of workforce programs in a direct service capacity. With a background in healthcare administration, Mrs. Sinecio brings a unique perspective in successfully implementing programs. Additionally, as a first generation Mexican-American, Mrs. Sinecio fiercely believes in ensuring equity for all job seekers.

“I am excited for the opportunity to take on this new role with National Able Network. With the current trends in employment, it is important that when we talk about making services equitable, we talk about access to those services. I am passionate about ensuring that services and programs are accessible to minority populations, disadvantaged populations and communities that continue to be marginalized.”

In the ever-changing job market, National Able Network has always remained innovative and will continue to remain at the forefront of workforce development trends. Mrs. Sinecio will be pivotal in expanding the agency’s programming and service delivery footprint in the coming years.

At National Able Network, our mission is to help make careers happen. Each client receives personalized career supports that integrate career coaching, specialized training, and direct connections to the job market. Our programs are designed to assist jobseekers from all backgrounds, including the unemployed, career changers, military veterans, seniors, and aspiring IT professionals. Each year, National Able Network provides service to nearly 75,000 individuals in Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota and Nebraska.

###